

Part 11 - Freedom Alchemy Class - Inception of Light

Moral Injuries - Peter, 22nd January 2020

Blessings Dear Brothers and Sisters,

This photo was shared with me by an EGA Member privately, who responded to the Part 7 of DK's Discourse, which referred to the glammers of the world. This photo was accompanied by these few words:

"This photo alone, without words, depicts the differences between glamour and no glamour!"

This image touched me so deeply that it has played on my mind since it arrived and has now led me to share my own deep regret, in fact, my own shame, in allowing this to happen. And it does not scratch the surface of man's inhumanity to man!

The photo of this Dear Child sleeping on a brick has indeed made a huge impact on me. So deep that even after a week, I still have tears rolling down my face with my own shame for allowing this to keep happening!

So, I have asked myself: what can I do that I am not already doing? What can I stop doing in my daily life that will allow me more time to Be the Change in this world I have come to Be? That I KNOW I have come to Be!

I have given it some great contemplation as to what and why! I have already discovered the aspect of feeling ashamed to be a human being allowing these travesties to continue and, in so, allowing me to question myself as to how I can increase my own participation to help alleviate, dissolve and correct these acts of inhumanity toward mankind, especially the children of this world.

I could list pages of such acts against children alone, not to mention women and men alike, but you all know what these lists would look like.

On my reflections of myself, I have come to the conclusion, which I choose to share with you all: I have Self Realized again, as this is not the first time, that to bring all these world imbalances into balance, it cannot be done from within humanity, that is, through any sort of human-based ego personality. The human race, as we know it, is changing and are doing things to improve and correct such injustices, disproportions and discriminations, but this remains a slow process.

The first time that I Realized this was just before I began the Melvadek Alliance, by Knowing that changes needed for humanity will not come from the human hierarchies, the oligarchs, or even human beings as individuals or in groups based on personalities and lower mind engagements, but instead from the Top Down; from Christed Councils that include human beings as well as the Masters, Shamballa, Hierarchy and other God Intelligences that reside within and above the 10th Dimension.

So, yes, I believe that we could make a difference in other ways, such as donations to charities, help by going to such locations offering my time, or even by doing seminars and bringing such disparities into greater awareness. Despite the genuine feeling that these and many more would help, what has already been created is the Elemental Grace Alliance, that has the ability to cut through all personality on every level if enough Members could but see the Truth of this Reality and, in turn, turn away from their own personality focuses; that, without a doubt, could aid in even greater awareness of the inequalities of the world.

I have, once more, Realized how easy it is to forget the simple fact that We have given Ourselves Permission to make the Greatest Changes possible in the shortest times possible, without speaking to another Dear Soul and while sharing opinions and beliefs, either in government, community or even within our family, friends and social groups.

Many are doing what we are doing, but none, we are told, are doing it the Elemental Grace Alliance's way!

We do not need thousands of followers or even participants, we were told right from the onset, even before the completion of the God Awakening Book, by Goddess Tara:

Let Me remind you that I, Tara, The Great Mother's Love, Light and Life Stream, Flows through you, will Stand and Support you, and We shall find the abilities required to respond to that which will lighten your load. You see, Dear Heart, this Plan of God's is not happenstance; it is Divinely Orchestrated, and those Who God has prepared, just like you, will join you in every endeavour, at every turn along the way. Let Me speak of 'Vocation' for a moment, for indeed, Peter, it shall be the Vocations of the many that will all make up a huge percentage of that which your task will soon require. Let Me jog your memory that what is being asked for regarding these Radiation Centres, at least in the beginning, is that a few dedicated Souls, who will commit themselves to the tasks at hand, that will step forward. When I say a 'few', I mean perhaps a dozen or two, maybe more, it is hard to see from where We are positioned at this time in accordance with Group Consciousness, let alone Individual Consciousness. Remember, this has never been attempted upon the planet before, so there is much we cannot evaluate with the clarity We would like. But for every 'few', there are billions who make their way through life, learning simply the basics of how to earn the bread of life to survive by the sweat of their brow. For the fortunate ones, they use their surplus earnings for the simple pleasures of their sensual desires, yet that is pretty much the extent of their existence.

However, for the Evolution of a Human Race, God depends upon those 'few' whose Energies Draw and Magnetize the Sacred Fire Light to themselves and with correct Loving Tuition from Us, the Masters, it can be sent out for the sustenance of the billions and to all the various activities within their societies. Again, you heard the story of Jesus and Mother Mary within these very Discourses. This has to be this way, else the Race would ultimately destroy itself, perish through lack of spiritual growth or have to be relocated to continue their Evolution within another Earth Realm. These 'few' are the Ones who We offer the most Guidance and Support to, through the various Rays and Qualities. Now, upon Earth, the 'few' have grown to potentially, as Beloved Kuan Yin brought to your awareness, some 3.6 million, of which some 11,800 are the closest, as yet to be able to facilitate the New Radiation Centres. Remember the magic number of 144,000, which by percentage, is approximately 0.00195% of the Earth's present population.

Within those, now ready to make the new shifts in Body, Mind and Spirit, you will find that those Beloved Souls are born teachers, born educators, born presenters, born mothers and fathers, born bakers, born researchers, builders, musicians, horticulturalists, artists, IT masters, beekeepers, cooks, medical people, mechanics, indeed, every trade and profession you will need, will arrive at your doorstep just as you require them. Nothing has been left to chance, but you know that; you have been living this way all your life, and it is because of your understanding of how to manage these Energies that God saw the Opportunity at hand when you offered your Life To His Service. So, She has placed you in this position of Administrator, Curator and Custodian.

Peter, when Energies are drawn through desires in the Heart and in the Feelings, and both are passionate with each other or the thought patterns in the mind, which cause those Energies to set themselves into motion within the physical and Inner vehicles, you have what you call 'volition'. When the Energies are dedicated and consecrated to furthering some particular part of the Divine Plan, you have 'vocation'.

You can read the whole Discourse starting on Page 683 of the Book. Without the Heart and Feelings both Passionate with each other, just as the latest Maha Chohan's 2 Discourses share, only the 'few' will be present herein the EGA! Yes, it has been 5 years in February since Book 1, Phase 1, was completed. Still yet, these 'few' remains evident in some across the EGA, where no passion between Heart and Mind is Expressed with the Desired Feelings, having the Self Realization to the fact that the EGA has been Specifically Designed from within Shamballa to make the Greatest Difference right now. This is not glamour, as far as I can see, for it was, then Shamballa for Creating this Divine Plan would also have to be in glamour to think that certain Work needs to be done to help Evolve a Human Race. How can we Be the Love In Action to execute that which Shamballa has given us if we do not speak of it honestly and openly? Yes, this is personality, my personality speaking here, yet how is Impersonality going to sort this out when to date, it has not been achieved by Impersonality alone? Sometimes the personality needs to be in play, at least, this is my present feeling.

We have proven countless times that we are on track with the 'few', but I sense that, due to this wake-up call, we can complete the Time Contractions that we have been given the Responsibility to sustain, maintain and conclude it. But we are still not unanimous in Group Unity, and that continues to be concerning.

In my contemplations over the past few days, something else has made its presence known to me, based upon this photo of a small boy whom I cannot deny is part of me: The Realization of who this boy may be to anyone who may read this may help us to close the gap that has been created across the EGA, where there is no Group Unity, Group Participation or Group Life; where the separation and complacency of lack of commitment, dedication and focus, throughout the membership across the EGA remains, in part. While the EGA retains this core wound, it will remain in half-heartedness, which affects the whole.

Not all are in this state of non-agreement that Beloved John the Baptist describes, in great detail, in the Paying It Forward Discourses, but enough are that we need to once again try to find a Resolution. While the Gift of Commitment cannot be achieved, let alone the Siddhi of Devotion, then the EGA cannot move forward, and We must once again address the Moral Wounds regarding Ethics and Morality now surfacing in the EGA Groups.

As this core Wound exists around this inability to Realize, there has come to my awareness that in my shame, that I, myself, have never seen this little boy, or any of the other Dear Hearts who struggle within the world, who are abused, in so many ways, not only children but women and men alike, while every living Soul on this planet is not seen as me, that is myself, then I have another Wound to deal with. That of Moral Injury or Moral Wound as it is sometimes known.

What is Moral Injury?

Moral injury is the damage done to one's conscience or moral compass when that person perpetrates, witnesses, or fails to prevent acts that transgress one's own moral beliefs, values, or ethical codes of conduct.

Moral injury can lead to serious distress, depression and suicidality. Moral injury can take the life of those suffering from it, both metaphorically and literally. Moral injury debilitates people, preventing them from living full and healthy lives.

The effects of moral injury go beyond the individual and can destroy one's capacity to trust others, impinging on the family system and the larger community. Moral injury must be brought forward into the community for a shared process of healing.

In the context of a Soul, with respect to the diversity of beliefs and religious perspectives held by those involved with moral injury, consider this:

Moral injury is damage done to the Soul of the individual. War is one (but not the only) thing that can cause this damage. Abuse, rape and violence may cause similar types of damage. 'Soul repair' and 'Soul wound' are terms already in use by researchers and institutions in the United States who are exploring moral injury and pathways to recovery.

Moral injury must be acknowledged in the same way that we acknowledge the physical and mental costs of traumas experienced in war and other places of danger. Moral injury is subjective and personal. Research on moral injury is younger than research on PTSD; the definitions, ideas and practices we're working with are both experimental and varied.

Raising awareness is prerequisite to creating change. We are building the space and capacity for those who have moral injuries to start their search for healing. This is not just an academic pursuit. We are addressing the needs of the wounded through multiple healing modalities. Our endeavour is unique in this regard; using artistic and literary formats for public engagement, we can serve those who need healing while addressing the public need for understanding of this topic.

I have never heard of Moral Injury before, so I had to do some research upon it, which I would encourage anyone interested to do. Therefore, what I have shared above are not my words, they are what I found relevant to our specific references here about why we do not have taken FULL Responsibility for those things we see in the world that we see being perpetuated, being witness to and fail to act and or to prevent the acts that transgress one's own moral beliefs, values and Ethical Codes of Conduct.

I have asked myself, what Moral Wounds do I have that prevents me from giving ALL MY Energy and Life to the Fullness of that which I have been made aware of, within these disparities in the world, that I do not morally accept as the Mother's Love and The Father's Light?

The answer was that We have done a lot, but can I/We do more? The response to that was the biggest and most profound 'YES' that I have ever Realized to date, in all that We have left to do as a human being walking this planet! I have not failed in a Mission, any Mission given to me by Spirit, but 'By God' I now Know that I can do more, and this Realization will change everything that I have done to date as my Own Role within the EGA!

I have also Realized that this Core Moral Wound is mine, as an individual, because 'I AM' One with every other human being upon the planet, for what one does, I do! What one does not, I do not!

So, this Core Wound of Morality is a Mass Consciousness Wound that needs Healing, and I/We can Heal this Wound in me/US, then this Injury shall be Healed within all of mankind.

If this Moral and Ethical Responsibility can be taken up by the EGA Membership, then complacency, lack of participation, unwilling or inability to respond or share a Group Unity of Intention, Responsibility, Commitment and Devotion to Their Service to Humanity against all odds, against all transgressions, then the 'few' may begin to become the 'many'!

Sue and I have a very Dear Friend, a Spiritual man, who is somewhat eccentric in nature but an extraordinary person in his own way. He says: "I do not care about anything or anyone"! Meaning as he looks upon the disparities of the world, he simply says: "it is not my problem, I do not care about these things". Being asked why he does not care, he said: "If I REALLY cared, I would not be sitting here speaking with you; I would be out there actively doing what I could do, every second of my waking day, to Heal and help alleviate the world imbalances. So, I have to say I just don't 'care' enough to do anything about it, which is the same as saying I just don't care about what happens to others out there! I ONLY care about what 'I' do in my own life. I do what God shows me to do, and 'that' I KNOW I can do well in, and I am very successful about it! Outside of that, I don't care about what others are doing or trying to be. I do not care about disparity or imbalance; I AM doing what I Know I need to do, and that is the end and all of it!"

One could look at this in many ways, but it does, in some manner, reflect that which I am bringing greater awareness for myself herein.

Thus, the changes I am sensing within the Elemental Grace Alliance is the closing of any Group, any Circle, the removal of anyone who came and gave their Pledges to their own 'I AM' Presences and cannot or will not give their allegiances to themselves, First through the Realization of Their Own Moral Responsibilities, as Part of this Divine Plan, then, we cut the EGA free to move forward, where only those who wish to follow this Divine Plan, who will see this small child in this war-torn street and 'not see' that he is part of the Living Organism, the same Living Organism as they are!

I will leave this here, for now, to allow it to trickle out into the minds of the EACOL, and perhaps the other EGA Groups and Circles may telepathically respond. Let Us all contemplate this further and see how we may be able to take advantage for the Healing of Moral Injuries within the Whole of The Human Race.

None of this is about 'doing anything', it is more about BEING EVERYTHING! See All As One United Forcefield or 'I AM' One World Nation.

This little boy is entitled to be a part of this United Forcefield, so, He can Be Himself also!

Sue asked me this morning: "what else do you see in this photo with the boy?" My answer was Peace, innocence and Acceptance. Sue spoke of this Peace as being a necessity for removing the personality. I could not agree more! I wonder if this Dear Soul judges anyone. I wonder if he even knows why his world is other than what it shows him every day. What Moral Injuries and Wounds will he grow up with? Does he even know he Has a Mother and Father, as we do? Does he even have a mum and dad? I expect not! May He Know Love someday! May He Know Peace! It Is Our Moral Obligation to 'care' for him and others like him! We 'can' care by playing our part in his future.

God Bless, and thank you for spending the time to read this sharing.

In Love and Light

Peter
