THE MAHA CHOHAN: Blessings again, Dear Masters, We return to now complete the Messages that We Feel most relevant in this Now Moment! Let Us continue in Love, Joy, Balance, Harmony and Good Will to All!

We would like for you to See now that one of the greatest imbalances that you are experiencing is that the Sub-conscious has a distinct distaste for compulsion and responds to persuasion rather than to command; consequently, it resembles the beloved wife more than the servant if we could use this as an example. The wives here will know what I Am speaking of, but likewise, the Feminine within the husband can also understand this statement when he is not in his Conscious mind! 'The husband is head of the wife', as Ephesian explains it; however, it may not be true of the physical man and woman in their earthly relationship, but it is True of the Conscious and the Sub-conscious, or the Male and Female Aspects of Consciousness. The Mystery to which Paul referred when He wrote, 'This is a great mystery. He that loveth his wife loveth himself. And they two shall be one flesh', is simply the Mystery of Consciousness. Consciousness is really One and Undivided, but for creation's sake it appears to be divided into two.

The Conscious (objective) or Male Aspect truly is the head and dominates the Sub-conscious (subjective) or Female Aspect. However, this Leadership is not that of the tyrant but of the Lover. So, by assuming the Feeling that would be yours were you already in Possession of your objective, the Sub-conscious is moved to build the exact likeness of your assumption. Your desires are not Sub-consciously accepted until you Assume the Feeling of Their Reality, for only through Feeling is an Idea Sub-consciously Accepted, and only through this Subconscious Acceptance is it ever Expressed.

It is easier to Ascribe your Feeling to events in the world than to admit that the conditions of the world reflect your Feeling. However, it is Eternally True that the outside mirrors the inside. 'As within, so without', 'As above, so below; as below, so above; as within, so without; as without, so within'. 'Correspondence' then is second of The Seven Principles of Hermes Trismegistus. 'A man can receive nothing unless it is given him from heaven' and 'The Kingdom of Heaven is Within you'. Nothing comes from without; all things come from within from the Sub-conscious. It is impossible for you to see other than the contents of your Consciousness. Your world and I highlight this for greater effectiveness, in its every detail, is your own consciousness objectified, not the consciousness of any other, until like-mindedness within an Ashramic Group Synthesis finally comes into manifestation. Objective states bear witness of Sub-conscious Impressions. A change of Impression results in a change of Expression.

The Sub-conscious Accepts as true that which you Feel as true, and because Creation is the result of Sub-conscious Impressions, you, by your Feeling, Determine Creation. When you consider this more deeply, you will see what St. Germain has been trying to Teach you in His Alchemy Classes regarding the Feeling Body.

Dear One's, You Are Already that which you Wish To Be, and your refusal to believe this, is the ONLY reason you do not see it. To seek on the outside for that which you do not Feel You Are, is to seek in vain, for you will never find that which you wish; you find only that which you are in the present, not 'Presence'!

In short, you express and have only that which you are Conscious of being or possessing. 'To him that hath it is given'. Denying the evidence of the senses and Appropriating the Feeling of the Wish Fulfilled is the Way to the Realization of Your Desire.

Mastery of self-control of your thoughts and Feelings is your Highest Achievement. However, until Perfect Self-Control IS Attained, so that, in spite of appearances, you Feel all that you wish to Feel, use sleep and prayerful thoughts to aid you in Self Realizing your Desired States of Being. These are the Two Gateways into the Sub-conscious.

The Importance of Sleep

SLEEP, the life that occupies one-third of your stay on earth, is the natural door into the Subconscious. So, it is with sleep that you are now concerned. The Conscious two-thirds of your life on earth is measured by the degree of attention you give sleep. Your understanding of and delight in what sleep has to bestow will cause you, night after night, to set out for it as though you were keeping an appointment with a Lover.

'In a dream, in a vision of the night, when deep sleep falleth upon men, in slumbering upon the bed; then he openeth the ears of men and sealed their instruction'. It is in sleep, and in prayer, a state akin to sleep, that man and woman enter the Sub-conscious to make their Impressions and Receive their Instructions. In these States, the Conscious and Sub-conscious are creatively joined. The male and female become one flesh. Sleep is the time when the male or Conscious mind turns from the world of sense to seek its Lover or Sub-conscious self. The Sub-conscious, unlike the woman of the world who mostly marries her husband from the old ways of consciousness, consciously or unconsciously, to change him, has no desire to change the Conscious, waking state but Loves it as it is and faithfully reproduces its likeness in the outer world of form.

The conditions and events of your life are your children formed from the moulds of your Subconscious Impressions in sleep. They are made in the Image and Likeness of your Innermost Feeling that they may reveal you to yourself. 'As in Heaven, so on Earth'. As in the Subconscious, so on Earth. Whatever you have in consciousness as you go to sleep is the measure of your Expression in the waking two-thirds of your life on Earth.

Nothing stops you from realizing your objective, save your failure to Feel that you are already that which you Wish To Be or that you are already in possession of the thing sought. Your Sub-conscious gives form to your Desires only when you Feel your Wish Fulfilled. The unconsciousness of sleep is the normal state of the Sub-conscious. Because all things come from Within yourself, and your Conception of yourself determines that which comes, you should always Feel the Wish Fulfilled before you drop off to sleep.

You never draw out of the deep of yourself that which you wish; you always draw that which you are, and you are that which you Feel yourself to be as well as that which you Feel as true of others. To be Realized, then, the wish must be resolved into the 'Feeling of Being' or having or witnessing the state sought. This is accomplished by assuming the Feeling of the wish fulfilled. The Feeling which comes in response to the question, 'How would I Feel were my wish realized?' is the Feeling which should monopolize and immobilize your attention as you relax into sleep. You must be in the consciousness of being or having that which you Wish to be or to have before you drop off to sleep.

Once asleep, man has no freedom of choice. His entire slumber is dominated by his last waking concept of self. It follows, therefore, that he should always assume the Feeling of accomplishment and satisfaction before he retires in sleep, 'Come before me with singing and thanksgiving', 'Enter into his gates with thanksgiving and into his courts with praise'. Your mood prior to sleep defines your State of Consciousness as you enter into the Presence of your Everlasting Lover, the Sub-conscious.

She sees you exactly as you Feel yourself to be. If, as you prepare for sleep, you assume and maintain the consciousness of success by Feeling 'I am successful', you must be successful. Lie flat on your back with your head on a level with your body. Feel as you would were you in possession of your wish and quietly relax into unconsciousness.

'He that keepeth Israel shall neither slumber nor sleep'. Nevertheless, 'He giveth his Beloved sleep'. The Sub-conscious never sleeps. Sleep is the door through which the Conscious, waking mind passes to be creatively joined to the Sub-conscious. Sleep Conceals the Creative Act, while the objective world reveals it.

In sleep, man impresses the Sub-conscious with his Conception of himself. What more Beautiful description of this Romance of the Conscious and Sub-conscious is there than that told in the 'Song of Solomon': 'By night on my bed I sought him whom my Soul Loveth. I found him whom my Soul Loveth; I held him, and I not let him go until I had brought him into my Mother's House, and into the Chamber of Her that Conceived me'. Beautiful is it not when viewed from this perspective, the marriage of man and woman, Male and Female Aspects.

Preparing to sleep, you Feel yourself into the state of the Answered Wish and then relax into unconsciousness. Your Realized Wish is he whom you seek. By night, on your bed, you seek the Feeling of the Wish Fulfilled that you may take it with you into the Chamber of Her, The Womb of Creation that Conceived you, into sleep or the Sub-conscious which gave you form, that this Wish also may be Given Expression in the outer experience of your world.

This is the way to discover and Conduct your wishes into the Sub-conscious. Feel yourself in the state of the Realized Wish and quietly drop off to sleep. Night after night, you should assume the 'Feeling of Being', 'The Realised Wish', having and Witnessing that which you Seek to Be, Possess and See Manifested. Never go to sleep Feeling discouraged or dissatisfied. Never sleep in the consciousness of failure. I repeat, Your Sub-conscious, whose natural state is sleep, sees you as you believe yourself to be, and whether it be good, bad or indifferent, the Sub-conscious will faithfully embody your belief.

As you Feel, so do you Impress her, and she, the Perfect Lover, gives form to these Impressions and out-pictures them as the children of her Beloved. 'Thou art all fair, my love; there is no spot in thee' (Song of Solomon 4:7) is the Attitude of mind to adopt before dropping off to sleep. Disregard appearances and Feel that things are as you wish them to be, for 'He calleth things that are not seen as though they were, and the unseen becomes seen'. To assume the Feeling of satisfaction is to call conditions into being which will mirror satisfaction. 'Signs follow, they do not precede'. Proof that you are will follow the consciousness that you are; it will not precede it.

You are an eternal dreamer, dreaming non-eternal dreams. Your dreams take form as you assume the feeling of their reality. Do not limit yourself to the past. Knowing that nothing is impossible to Consciousness, begin to Imagine States beyond the experiences of the past. Whatever the mind of man and woman can Imagine, they can Realize. All objective (visible) states were first subjective (invisible) states, and you called them into visibility by assuming the feeling of their Reality.

The Creative Process is first Imagining and then Believing the State Imagined. Always Imagine and Expect the best. The world cannot change until you change your Conception of it. 'As within, so without'. Nations, as well as people, are only what you believe them to be. No matter what the problem is, no matter where it is, no matter whom it concerns, you have no one to change but yourself, and you have neither opponent nor helper in bringing about the change within yourself. You have nothing to do but convince yourself of the Truth of that which you Desire to See Manifested.

As soon as you succeed in convincing yourself of the Reality of the State sought, results follow to confirm your fixed belief. You never suggest to another the state which you Desire to see him express; instead, you convince yourself that he is already that which you Desire him to be. Realization of your Wish is Accomplished by Assuming the Feeling of the Wish Fulfilled. You cannot fail unless you fail to convince yourself of the Reality of your Wish or Vision. A change of belief is confirmed by a change of Expression. Every night, as you drop off to sleep, Feel satisfied and spotless, for your Subjective Lover always forms the objective world in the Image and Likeness of your Conception of it, the Conception defined by your Feeling.

The waking two-thirds of your life on Earth ever Corroborates or Bears Witness to your Subconscious Impressions. The actions and events of the day are effects; they are not causes. 'Free will' is only freedom of choice. 'Choose ye this day whom ye shall serve' is your freedom to choose the kind of mood you assume, but the Expression of the mood is the Secret of the Sub-conscious.

The Sub-conscious receives Impressions only through the Feelings of man (the Consciousness) and, in a way known only to itself, gives these Impressions form and Expression. The actions of man (the Consciousness) are determined by his Sub-conscious Impressions. His illusion of free will, his belief in freedom of action, is but ignorance of the causes which make him act. He thinks himself free because he has forgotten the link between himself and the event.

Man, awake (the consciousness), is under compulsion to Express his Sub-conscious Impressions. If in the past he unwisely Impressed himself, then let him begin to change his thought and Feeling, for only as he does so will he change his world. Do not waste one moment in regret, for to think Feelingly of the mistakes of the past is to reinfect yourself. 'Let the dead bury the dead'. Turn from appearances and assume the Feeling that would be yours were you already the one you Wish to Be. Feeling a state produces that state.

The part you play on the world's stage is determined by your Conception of yourself. By Feeling your wish fulfilled and quietly relaxing into sleep, you cast yourself in a star role to be played on Earth tomorrow, and, while asleep, you are rehearsed and instructed in your part. The acceptance of the end automatically wills the means of Realization. Make no mistake about this. If, as you prepare for sleep, you do not consciously Feel yourself into the State of the Answered Wish, then you will take with you into the Chamber of Her Womb, who conceived you the sum total of the reactions and Feelings of the waking day; and while asleep, you will be instructed in the manner in which they will be Expressed tomorrow. You will rise believing that you are a free agent, not realizing that every action and event of the day is predetermined by your Concept of self as you fell asleep. Your only freedom, then, is your freedom of reaction. You are free to choose how you Feel and react to the day's drama, but the drama, the actions, events and circumstances of the day, have already been determined.

Unless you Consciously and Purposely Define the Attitude of mind with which you go to sleep, you unconsciously go to sleep in the composite attitude of mind made up of all Feelings and reactions of the day. Every reaction makes a Sub-conscious Impression and, unless counteracted by an opposite and more dominant Feeling, is the cause of future action. Ideas enveloped in Feeling Are Creative Actions. Use your Divine Right Wisely. Through your ability to think and Feel, you have Dominion over All Creation. While you are awake, you are a gardener selecting seed for your garden, but, 'Except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone; but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit'. Your Conception of yourself as you fall asleep is the seed you drop into the ground of the Sub-conscious. Dropping off to sleep Feeling Satisfied and Happy compels conditions and events to appear in your world, which confirm these Attitudes of mind. Sleep is the door into Heaven. What you take in as a Feeling, you bring out as a Condition, Action, or Object in space. So, Sleep in the 'Feeling of Being', the 'Wish Realized'.

Prayer

Prayer, like sleep, is also an entrance into the Sub-conscious. 'When you Pray, enter into your closet, and when you have shut your door, Pray to your Father which is in secret, and your Father which is in secret shall reward you openly'. Prayer is an illusion of sleep which diminishes the Impression of the outer world and renders the mind more Receptive to suggestion from within. The mind in Silent Prayer is in a state of relaxation and receptivity akin to the Feeling attained just before dropping off to sleep.

Prayer is not so much what you ask for as how you prepare for its reception. 'Whatsoever things ye desire, when ye pray, believe that you have received them, and ye shall have them'. The only condition required is that you believe that your Prayers Are Already Realized. Your Prayer Must be Answered if you Assume the Feeling that would be yours were you already in possession of your objective. The moment you Accept the Wish as an Accomplished Fact, the Sub-conscious finds means for its Realization. To Pray Successfully, then, you Must Yield to the Wish, that is, 'Feel the Wish fulfilled'. The perfectly disciplined man or woman is always in tune with the Wish as an Accomplished Fact. He or she Knows that Consciousness is the One and Only Reality, that Ideas and Feelings are Facts of Consciousness and Are As Real as Objects in space; therefore, he or she never entertains a Feeling which does not Contribute to his or her Happiness, for Feelings are the Causes of the Actions and Circumstances of their Life.

On the other hand, the undisciplined man or woman finds it difficult to believe that which is denied by the senses and usually accepts or rejects solely on appearances of the senses. Because of this tendency to rely on the evidence of the senses, it is necessary to shut them out before starting to Pray, before attempting to Feel that which they deny. Whenever you are in the state of mind 'I should like to, but I cannot', the harder you try, the less you are able to Yield to the Wish. You will never attract that which you Wish but always attract that which you are conscious of being. Prayer is the Art of Assuming the 'Feeling of Being' and having that which you Wish for.

When the senses confirm the absence of your Wish, all conscious effort to counteract this suggestion is futile and tends to intensify the suggestion. Prayer is the Art of Yielding to the Wish and not the forcing of the Wish. Whenever your Feeling is in conflict with your Wish, Feeling Will Be The Victor, one way or the other, good or bad, strong or weak. The dominant Feeling invariably expresses itself. Prayer must be without effort. In attempting to fix an attitude of mind which is denied by the senses, effort is fatal. To Yield successfully to the Wish as an Accomplished Fact, you 'must' create a passive state, a kind of reverie or meditative reflection similar to the Feeling which precedes sleep. In such a relaxed state, the mind is turned from the objective world and easily senses the Reality of a Subjective State. It is a State in which you are conscious and quite able to move or open your eyes but have no desire to do so. An easy way to create this passive state is to relax in a comfortable chair or on a bed. If on a bed, lie flat on your back with your head on a level with your body, close the eyes and imagine that you are sleepy. Feel, I am sleepy, so sleepy, so very sleepy.

In a little while, a faraway Feeling accompanied by a general lassitude and loss of all desire to move envelops you. You Feel a pleasant, comfortable rest and not inclined to alter your position, although, under other circumstances, you would not be at all comfortable. When this passive state is reached, imagine that you have realized your wish, not how it was realized, but simply the Wish Realised or Fulfilled. Imagine sense of feel in picture form what you desire to achieve in life; then Feel yourself as having already achieved it. Thoughts produce tiny little speech movements which may be heard in the passive State of Prayer as pronouncements from without. However, this degree of passivity is not essential to the Realization of your Prayers. All that is necessary is to create a passive state and Feel the wish fulfilled. All you can possibly need or desire is already yours. You need no helper to give it to you; it is yours now. Call your Desires into Being by Imagining and Feeling your wish fulfilled. As the end is Accepted, you become totally indifferent as to possible failure, for Acceptance of the end wills the means to that end.

When you emerge from the Moment of Prayer, it is as though you were shown the Happy and Successful end of a play, although you were not shown how that end was achieved. However, having witnessed the end, regardless of any anticlimactic sequence, you remain calm and secure in the Knowledge that the end has been Perfectly Defined.

Feeling

'NOT by might, nor by power, but by My Spirit, Saith the Lord of Hosts'. Get into the Spirit of the State Desired by Assuming the Feeling that would be yours were you already the One you Wish To Be. As you capture the Feeling of the state sought, you are relieved of all effort to make it so, for it is already so. There is a definite Feeling associated with every idea in the mind of man. Capture the Feeling associated with your Realized Wish by assuming the Feeling that would be yours were you already in possession of the thing you desire, and your Wish will objectify itself.

Faith is Feeling, 'According to your Faith (Feeling) be it unto you'. You never attract that which you wish, but always that which you are. As a man is, so does he see. 'To him, that hath it shall be given and to him that hath not it shall be taken away'. That which you Feel yourself to be, you are, and you are given that which you are. So, assume the Feeling that would be yours were you already in possession of your Wish, and your Wish Must Be Realized. 'So, God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him'. 'Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus, who being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God'. You are that which you believe yourself to be. Instead of believing in God or in Jesus, believe you are God, or you are Jesus. 'He that Believeth on Me, the works that I do shall he do also' should be 'He that believes as I believe the works that I do shall he do also'. Jesus found it not strange to do the Works of God because He believed Himself to be God.

'I and My Father Are One'. It is natural to do the Works of the One you believe yourself to be. So, Live in the 'Feeling of Being' the One You Wish To Be and That You Shall Be. When a man or woman believes in the Value of the Advice Given him or her and Rightfully Applies It, he or she shall Establish within themselves the Reality of Success.

In closing I wish to include a 'note' here for Peter to become aware of! Yes, Brother, You have already seen that 'note' again as you scribe these Discourses, the one stuck upon your front door in your dream! 'Meet Me At The Gate', it said, and if you were able to look closer at the handwriting, you would have seen your own! And the Signature would have been from the One You Seek! 'Meet Me at the Gate' it said, Indeed! The Gate is Sleep, and it is the Subconscious you 'Wished to Meet', for your 'message' was your own to yourself, you see! 'Ask, and it shall be given unto you'! Your Openness to Receive allowed it to manifest in this way! One may call this a Miracle, but it is more than that, it is Creation Itself!

To Know God, First Know Yourself!

Take the Path of Least Resistance!

No Longer Seek Further That Which Is Seen,

Rather Seek ONLY Now That Which Is Unseen!

May You Pass Every Test.
