From the Point of Light within the Mind of God
Let Light Stream forth into the minds of men. Let Light descend on Earth.

From the Point of Love within the Heart of God
Let Love Stream forth into the hearts of men.
May Christ return to Earth.

From the Centre where the
Will of God is Known
Let Purpose Guide the little wills of men –
The Purpose which the Masters Know and Serve.

From the Centre which we call the race of men
Let the Plan of Love and Light work out
And may it seal the door where inequity dwells.

Let Light and Love and Power Restore the Plan on Earth. And So It Is and It Is Done!

Begin Writing -

Embracing, fusing and unifying the endeavor of all these groups of Ashrams, stands the living Christ, the Head of all Ashrams and the Master of the Masters, the Mediator between Shamballa and the Hierarchy and between the Hierarchy and Humanity. Will you gain some insight into the all-pervading conditions if I state that His work of mediating between humanity and the Hierarchy was perfected by Him and carried to a conclusion when He was last on Earth, and that He is now achieving facility in the higher mediatorship which will bring about a closer relation of the Hierarchy with Shamballa at this time. This mediatory work, based on the blending of the spiritual will (which He has already developed) with the universal will (which He is developing), marks for Him a goal which will be consummated when He takes the ninth initiation. These are great mysteries and I only indicate them in order to convey to you a sense of the synthesis of the whole scheme and a recognition of the urge-to good which pervades every aspect of the planetary Life from the smallest atom of substance, through all the intermediate living forms, on and up to the planetary Logos Himself.

The will is too often regarded as a power by means of which things are done, activities are instituted, and plans worked out. This general definition is the easiest for men to formulate because it is understood by them in terms of their own selfwill, the will to individual self-betterment—selfish and misunderstood at first but tending eventually to selflessness as evolution carries out its beneficent task. Then the will is interpreted in terms of the hierarchical plan, and the effort of the individual man becomes that of negating his self-will and seeking to merge his will with that of the group, the group being itself an aspect of the hierarchical effort. This is a great step onward in orientation and will lead to a change in consciousness eventually. This last sentence is of importance.

It is at this stage that most aspirants today find themselves. However, the will is in reality something very different to these expressions of it which exist in the human consciousness as men attempt to interpret the divine will in terms of their present point in evolution. The clue to understanding (the clue which will be the easiest for you to understand) is to be found in the words "blotting out all form." When the lure of substance is overcome, and desire dies, then the attractive power of the soul becomes dominant and the emphasis for so long laid upon individual form and individual living and activity gives place to group form and group purpose. Then the attractive power of the Hierarchy and of the Ashrams of the Masters supersedes the lower attractions and the lesser focal points of interest. When these, in their turn, assume their rightful place in consciousness then the dynamic "pull" of Shamballa can be felt, entirely unrelated to form or forms, to a group or groups. Only a group sense of "well Being," esoterically understood is realized, for it is comprehended as the will-to-good. No forms can then hold; no group or Ashram can then confine the consciousness of the initiate, and all differences of every kind disappear. This preamble is given in an effort to clarify your minds before we study Rule IX carefully and arrive at its essential meaning.

AN EVOLVING UNDERSTANDING OF DIVINE WILL

MAINSTREAM UNDERSTANDING

- Self-will is too often regarded as a power by means of which things are done, through which activities and plans are worked out
- Worldly understanding is centred in the individual's self-will and the use of will for self-betterment
- What begins as selfish will inevitably evolve to selflessness as evolution carries out its beneficent task

A HIERARCHICAL APPRECIATION

- Will is interpreted in terms of the Hierarchical Plan
- Individual effort then shifts to negating self-will
- The effort then shifts to merging individual will to match that of the group; the group is thus a training aspect of the Hierarchical Effort
- This shift is a great step onward in orientation and will eventually lead to a change in consciousness

THE WILL IN REALITY

- Is something very different to these expressions of it which exist in the human consciousness
- When the lure of substance is overcome and desire dies the attractive power of the Soul becomes dominant
- The emphasis upon individual form living and activity gives place to Group form and purpose, and the supporting Hierarchy

THE DYNAMIC PULL OF SHAMBALLA

- When individuals within the Group assume their rightful place in consciousness the Dynamic Pull of Shamballa is felt
- When there is a circular sense of "well Being" the Group is functioning as the Will-to-Good
- In turn, forms will have no hold, all differences of every kind disappear, and the consciousness of the Initiate is liberated
