CRYSTALLINE IMPECCABILITY - DANCING WITH THE STARS - AA METATRON - JAMES TYBERONN, 16TH APRIL 2011

AA METATRON: "Greetings Beloved! 'I AM' Metatron, Lord of Light, and I greet you, one and all, respectfully and knowingly. I greet each of you individually within the exact moment in which you read these living words in the vibratory essence of the eternal NOW. I embrace you in love. As the heralded Ascension draws nigh, all around you is opening. The Nature of your Divine Star Seed is expanded into Earth Realms; indeed, you are dancing with the Stars. The Stars of Hope, Love and Impeccability.

"Dear Ones, We of the Angelic Realm are here to support you, to offer Insights of Guidance, but it is up to each of you in sojourns of polarity and duality to Master your challenges. These are your avenues of learning, and it is incumbent for each of you to face and solve your problems. We assist you by putting you in touch with your Own Power. Our purpose is not to solve them for you or to come between you and your own freedom of discernment and choice by giving you 'answers', even to the most Complex of Challenges.

"Our Purpose is to reinforce your own strength, for ultimately, the vast Divinity of your Being is not only well equipped to help you find fulfilment but totally desirous of doing so. And Dear Human, in this process, you will discover your Higher Nature of Wisdom, Understanding, Exuberance, and Peace. No one, not even an Angel, can do this for you. In Impeccability, you will achieve every self-designed task before you. Beloved, We offer in this moment the Integral Energy of Our Light Beingness, of that Crystalline Essence of which We Are. We offer you, in Pure Love, the Guidance of Our Wisdom for your discernment. Masters, We ask of you simply to be fully present in your hearts and minds. Discern what We say, for you are a God in process. Take what resonates of that We offer, for it is presented to you in deepest Respect and Love".

Star Dancing: Expanding in Love

"The Star Dance of your life is to Expand in Love. But the Love We speak of is not merely the emotion that you humans tend to think of as love, but rather the Extraordinary Magnificent Energy and Science of what may be termed Expansive Unconditional Love. In this context, Love is indeed a science, a vast field that is composed of a very Complex Vibrational Resonance.

"So, let Us further define a Key Component of Love Resonance as it relates to your growth...and that is the Impeccability of Actuated Divine Will. Will, as translated into Action, is the driver of your search for Spiritual growth. Impeccability, then, is the distillation of your present experiences and knowledge into the Wisdom of Action".

Accepting the Challenge

“While it is true that your thoughts create the reality you experience in duality, you, in a Higher aspect, thoughtfully and carefully compose and create the challenges that you face. These have great purpose. Whether you truly believe it or not, you write your own tests. So, while 'positive thinking' is a key Frequency, positive thinking is meant to help you approach your life lessons and does not circumvent the learning process itself. You cannot just ignore or wish away the growth lessons you scripted for yourself in order to expand. That is because your chosen setups are, in most cases, outside, beyond the ability of the duality aspect of ego-brain to remove or will away. You will face them because you have, in your Divine Self, Willed it from Higher Perspective. We assure you that there is nothing more stimulating, more worthy of actualization than your manifested desire to evolve to change for the better. That is indeed each of your lifetime missions. It is not enough to meditate or to visualize the desired goal being accomplished if you do not act upon the Inner Voice, the drive from which your meditations and visualizations arise.

“Intent, focus and meditation must absolutely be teamed with Action. Becoming impeccable and eventually achieving your enlightenment does not mean, as some religions indirectly imply, that you are suddenly in a blissful state of oblivion or in some distant State of Nirvana. Masters, We tell you that you are as much a part of a Nirvana now as you ever will be, you simply need to discover it within you. There will indeed be cycles within your emotional state that is part of being human. There will be times in which you feel apathetic and depressed. Not only the problems you face but even certain astronomical gravities can be the source of such despair on their own. All of these must be faced and can be surmounted.

“So, be aware that 'Nirvana', in your vernacular, is achieved attitudinally and not through avoidance, ignorance or escape, but through impeccable confrontation of the reality that surrounds you. Earth experience, duality mastery, is difficult. This is a Great Truth, one of the Greatest Truths of duality, and one commonly misunderstood. The study and mastery of life requires work. You can't simply put the textbook under your pillow and sleep on it, it must be read and understood a page at a time, moment by moment.

“So then, your full understanding and accepting that your life is a construction of 'set ups' that you Planned in order to enable your Spiritual growth is an even Greater Truth. You see, when you accept this Noble Truth, you have the opportunity to transcend it. That you term 'destiny' is, in Truth, the situations you pre-Planned for your life lesson. And, Dears Ones, that very self-scripted 'destiny,' in your such terms, will assist you to both face your challenges and then manifest your desires, but not because you protest what you do not like. In order to experience the Light of your desire, you must ignite the passion that will free it from the stronghold where it has been closely guarded. The Greatest Path is to accept the challenge of self-purification by being a living example of your own Light rather than protesting the darkness that still exists within the world in 3d, instead of choosing to insulate yourself from it”.

Acceptance

“Masters, by accepting that you are here to face challenges, you can more robustly create the energy needed to face them. Because once it is accepted, the fact that life can be difficult no longer scares you, rather, it motivates the Spiritual Warrior into resolve. The greatest issue you have in accepting ultimate ownership and responsibility for your actions lies in the core desire to avoid the pain of the consequences of that behaviour. But We tell you that it is the confrontational courage of Impeccably solving problems that provides and, indeed, nurtures meaningful growth in your life.

“Facing your problems is the serendipitous cutting edge that distinguishes between success and failure, or better said, between growth and stagnation. Problems call forth your best effort to resolve and refine courage and wisdom within the impeccable seeker. It is categorically because of stressful predicaments and obstructions that you grow mentally and Spiritually. It is through the pain of confronting and resolving life-puzzles and 'set-ups' that you learn the Greater meaning of the Science of Love. Dear Hearts, the candid fact is that some of your most poignant accomplishments and, indeed, greatest growths are spawned when you are placed in the troubling crossroads of conundrum. Your greatest trials and revelations take place in times when you are outside of your 'comfort zone', feeling bewildered, unfulfilled, or even in a state of agonizing despair. For it is in such moments, propelled by your discomfort, that you are compelled to burst out of the confining cages and seek a better, more Spiritually satisfying way of life”.

Impeccability - The State of Grace

“What, then, is impeccability? We are not understating the base premise when we define impeccability simply as 'always trying to do your best.' But to remain impeccable requires more effort as the scope of your gained wisdom and consciousness expands. The Greater your Consciousness, the more you 'Know.' The more you know, the Greater the Responsibility to Live accordingly. You are in the process of expanding your vibratory awareness, of becoming a conscious participant with the Soul. You are becoming what your Soul is, discovering your Greater Identity.

“Dear Ones, when you grow Spiritually, it is because you have opened to seek growth and are taking action, working to achieve it. Impeccability involves the deliberate extension of your Beingness into evolution. Impeccability puts you in the State of Grace. Impeccability does not infer that you have achieved enlightenment or have learned all you need to learn. Rather it means you are on the only track, the right pathway to get there.

“So, we will define Impeccability in two layers, two-phase formats:

“1) Conditional Impeccability: This is when the entity is not highly advanced, yet working toward mastery, doing one’s best. Utilizing knowledge to the best of one’s ability to do the right thing, even when there may be ignorance and innocent misconceptions. By that, we mean you truly believe what you are doing is the right course, even if it is not the full or expansive Truth. All of you go through such phases. In this phase, if you make a mistake, it is an honest mistake in which you genuinely believed you were doing what you felt is right.

“2) Mastery Impeccability: This is the phase of the Soul in human existence that is on the cusp of Mastery. One Highly Advanced and Walking the Talk. Having no Inner Conflict between what one believes to be the Right Path and what one Actuates.

“Both phases activate what you may term as an accelerated State of Grace. Grace is assistance from the Divine Self to help the outcome of situations when one is trying their best. It may be thought of as the 'Guardian Angel' because, in many cases, that is exactly what a Guardian Angel is, your Divine Self serendipitously intervening in situations to assist you on your path. If We were to redefine what your religious texts consider as sin, it would not be in terms of the commandments, rather, it would be: 'Knowledge not utilized'. Taking actions you know to be incorrect, actions in conflict to your Highest beliefs”.

Wisdom Is Within

“All of you desire wisdom Greater than your own. Seek, and you will find, and Masters, you can find it 'hidden' inside you. And sadly, that is oft the last place you look. It takes work. You see, the Divine Interface between God and man is within what your academics term as the subconscious. Even your religious texts tell you that God is within you, that you are a spark of the Divine. The subconscious mind, or 'back brain' in your terms, is the part of you that is God. The portion of your Greater Self that contains the Knowledge of 'All That Is', the part of you that contains the Akashic Records, the Soul Memory of Everything.

“Since the subconscious is the Divine Mind within you, the goal of Spiritual growth is achieved by entering into that Sacred 'Garden of Wisdom.' It is entered by quieting the ego mind. Meditation has ever been the gateway. It is the key to quieting the personality-ego narration and allowing the 'Voice of the Divine Soul' to be heard. We say again, effort is required. There are no shortcuts. The re-attainment of God-ness is the purpose of your individual existence on the polarity Plane. You are born that you might become, as a conscious individual, a physical expression of God. Divine expression in Being-ness. The challenge is your Soul quest, your True Purpose, and in physical sojourns, the clock is ever ticking. Obtaining Godhood in physicality is achieved on time-release through immaculate desire that is actuated in the physical Realm by merging with the wisdom of the non-physical. Time matters.

“In polarity, the current shifting of paradigms and energies can throw you off Centre rather easily in these quickening times. Your True Purpose is often difficult to subjectively define, and your understanding and ballast lies juxtaposed between illusion and perceived reality. You may feel you are living in distortion and that nothing is exactly as it seems. In the process, you can become confused and complacent. You can lose track of time. Dear Ones, your lives, each moment of your physical life, is precious, far more so than some of you realize. Far more than most of you utilize. Time is a precious commodity, and it is finite within your duality. Each of you reading these words will, at some point in the future, transition out of the physical. In your vernacular, you will experience death, you will die. This is a condition of physicality as you know it, yet so many of you act as though you will live forever. Indeed, the Soul is Eternal, but you will not ever be the same person, the same personality or expression that you are now, in any lifetime or in any other aspect of your Beingness. You are here to learn, Dear Ones; you are here to learn the expressions of your own Godliness within duality, and indeed duality is a gift. Life is a gift. You are here to learn how to co-create, for indeed, you are co-creators of the Universe, of the Cosmos. You are here to achieve Mastery, and so many of you are very close, very near that achievement”.

Seize the Day

“Masters, until you truly value yourself, you will not be in the Grace of Impeccability and thus not be motivated to truly value and optimize your time. Unless you place great value on your allotted time, you will not do your 'best' with it. ‘Carpe Diem’ is translated as ‘Seize the Day,’ and this is so appropriate. You must seize each moment! So many of you, despite your good intentions, allow yourselves to be tranquillized into complacency at certain phases or within certain conditions of your chosen sojourns. Many of you waste time, misuse time, and lifetime after lifetime can be squandered. What you do not face, what you do not resolve in any one moment or lifetime, will resurface. You will repeat the set-up until you successfully solve it, and that is indeed a Great Truth.

“Masters, utilizing your time in duality is quintessential, and that is a complex undertaking, for it necessitates that you seek Impeccability. It requisites love of self, for until you genuinely value yourself, you truly do not value your life and time. And until you value your time, you will not be compelled to maximize how you spend it. Natural Discipline is the basic set of tools to solve life problems. Without discipline, it is difficult for you to have the drive required to focus on the work of solving your problems. Simply stated, you can become immobilized...apathetic, complacent or lazy. On the 'Ladder of Ascension,' you are moving up, setting still or moving down. In third Dimensional physics, there is a Law that states that energy that is highly organized will naturally degrade when not in its dynamic state. It is easier by Natural Law to be in a state of complacency in the physical Plane than to be in an upwardly mobile condition. That is clearly logical. It is the Law of Love that motivates all Souls into Greater Consciousness, and that requires dynamic work! Laziness is, in a real sense, one of your biggest obstacles because work means swimming against the tide. Seize the Day!”

Perfect Order

“Some of you say and feel that ‘Everything works out as it should, all is in perfect order’. But Masters, that concept is something of a paradox, and like a face card, it is upside down either way you look at it. Do you understand? From the Higher perspective, all is in perfect order, but from the perspective of humankind within duality, it is not! If it were, there would be no need for lesson, no need for what you term reincarnation. One need but take a look around and know that the plight of humankind on the planet Earth is far from being perfect. Indeed, it will NOT work out as it should until you make it so! This applies in the microcosm and the macrocosm. There is much to manage, much to review. All in time and Masters, it will occur. We offer some of the lingering issues for review and discernment. Hidden Ego - Spiritual One-Upmanship.

“Many of you are leaders and teachers and have worked long and hard to acquire an advanced level of knowledge and Spiritual Truths. This is admirable. But it leads to a crossroad of decision. A human on the path of Mastery must avoid the trappings of ego, or it will fall in atrocity. A leader must ever Honour its Soul’s Voice and follow their internally directed path in order to ascend rather than fall. This is an essential compass for all on the advanced course of Mastery. Without inner 'Soul Review' and recalibration, one cannot see the true direction of Home. Understand, then, that with continued advancement comes the need for humility. How many of you have attended metaphysical gatherings only to be somewhat put-off by someone who makes it a point to let you know how far they travel in their dreams, how many great visions and celestial teachers they see in the Higher Realms, the implication being that they are advanced in mastery and want to be sure everyone knows it. This is an understandable pitfall but is not the true walk of Integrity. Spiritual 'One-Upmanship' is rampant in New Age circles, yet most offenders would not even be aware they are coming across in such a pompous manner. There are many covert trappings of ego within Spiritual circles. No one is exempt. Leaders and teachers who advance to a certain level are particularly susceptible to this trapping of ego when they begin to achieve a following. Most that have it don't recognize it. Are you one of these? It happens to most at some point, Dear Ones. Humility is the way of the True Spiritual Leader, yet it is so easy to blindly fall into self-aggrandizement.

“We tell you in Love, Dear Ones, that it happens to all of you. It happens in all of your lifetimes, the move and shift day to day, in and out of integrity. Within duality, whether you are a teacher or a student (and all of you are both!), none of you are above it, and that is why it is necessary to recalibrate through the infinite mirror of Truth, of self-review within the detached observer within self. There is such a fine line between self-Love and ego. The paradox is that the former is a necessity of Impeccability, and the latter is a hindrance to it. On the Path of Mastery, you will be forced many times to choose between love and power, and power is very seductive and often well-disguised. Pride comes before the fall. Many have risen to great heights in Spiritual achievement only to lose it all by becoming blinded by ego. There are two forms of power, one is used for control, political power, and the other is True Power, the Benevolent Power of Love. But as you progress in your awareness, you will find the distinction of power less a case of good and evil and more of a case between love and deceptive concepts of power. It is about more subtle energies. There are energies that desire one movement or direction, and there are energies that would necessitate a different and more refined understanding. The challenge remains in putting all the pieces together, and this is not an easy task.

“Your role now and tomorrow is ever to seek fulfilment, understanding and Impeccable unfoldment. Your Divine Mission can and will create a beautiful merging of purposeful experiential reality....of dancing in Joyous starlight and Projecting the rays of that crystalline beauty to all around you. There is no ecstasy more supreme than achieving the Divine Mind. It is why you are here. You are of the Realm of Creatorship, of Mastery, and you are far closer to its physical manifestation than you know. Dear Ones, YOU created the Ascension, and it is dawning now. We honour you. The heralded time you have dreamed of awaits you, Dear Ones. - ‘I AM’ Metatron, and you are Beloved.”

PETER: This channel could not be more appropriate for us here, nor could it be more in alignment to everything that is being shared. Thank you, Metatron, for your Divine Intervention, very much appreciated!

‘I AM’ not sure at this stage what is coming next, but ‘I AM’ open to allow all that may deem important within the unfoldment of this Alliance.

Oh, My God! I could never have expected what came next! Having finished the last channel on the 8th December, a few days passed without any thoughts or feelings about the next speaker. Then on the 12th at 11.00 pm, I developed instant acute pains in my groin, lower abdomen and back on my left side. So acute, in fact, that it also induced hours of violent vomiting. Sue called 999 for an ambulance, and it took about an hour and a half for them to arrive. By that time, I was beside myself in pain. I have never experienced such pain in all my life!

Three paramedics arrived, and it took some time to stabilize me with gas and morphine, but eventually, I calmed down and was taken to hospital. I don’t remember the 35-minute drive at all and found myself so weak from the experience while still dry retching even in the hospital.

Several days of tests, x-rays, CT Scans and Ultrasound examinations, I was diagnosed as having a 2mm kidney stone that had dropped into my left urethra tube from my kidney, 2 more dormant stones found in my right kidney, a dormant gallstone in my gall bladder, diverticulosis (Diverticular disease is a condition that occurs when a person has problems from small pouches, or sacs, that have formed and pushed outward through weak spots in the colon wall. Each pouch is called a diverticulum. Multiple pouches are called diverticula. The colon is part of the large intestine.) and two hernias of the stomach and navel! (A hernia occurs when an internal part of the body pushes through a weakness in the muscle or surrounding tissue wall. In many cases, hernias cause no or very few symptoms, although you may notice a swelling or lump in your tummy (abdomen) or groin). Talk about releases, trapped or suppressed energies. I was surely going through the effects of that which has been set in motion with the Earth and the Sun of Even Pressure. And I thought I was in pretty reasonable shape, obviously not! Smiling!

Lady Nada once again must have known beforehand, recommending rest, rest, rest! After 4 days in the hospital, 'I AM' now recuperating from my ordeal and continue with my drugs, pain killers, awaiting for the stone to be released. Today is the 27th of December, and still no sign of any kidney stone. So who can tell? I will simply take one step at a time, and Violet Flame and Ruby Fire them until I know that 'I AM' clear.

I now await for the next transmission when it feels right!

Okay, the Lyrans have come forth now, so let us continue!
