

Part 24 - Quality of Live and Freedom - Elemental Grace Alliance

MERGING OF ADAM LILITH AND EVE - GODDESS HIMALAYA - PETER, 18TH OCTOBER 2015

PETER: Dear God, I Am of Incorruptible, Indestructible Matter and Untouchable at Infinite Speed, in Light of this new information presented to me today and in alignment to the Divine Connections being made for a New Unification of Love, Light and God Life upon Earth, I call forth Beloved Goddess Himalaya, also known as Evening Rose, The White Fire Flame of the White Rose who represented Eve in the story of the introduction of mankind on Earth through the Garden of Eden, with Adam and Lilith.

Dear Evening Rose, can you please help me to understand the reference made in the information from the Radiant Rose Academy and how that relates to the mission that I was given in 2008 by Beloved Jesus, to bring a New Balance to the Patriarchal and Matriarchal Energies within mankind? Only yesterday, I was reminded of this task that I felt was perhaps still incomplete somehow and which needed further attention on my part. Bless You, Dear Heart, for your 'Presence'.

GODDESS HIMALAYA: "Dear One, I heard, or rather I telepathically received, for I Am a Master Teacher of telepathy within the Environments of Earth, that I was being summoned to hear the Heart calling of a human heart that wished to be in Service to Me. And that felt very strange indeed. I come with tears in my eyes, Blessed Soul, for you have no idea the magnitude of your calling, albeit within your unknowingness at this time. My Heart is so overwhelmed, for this moment, I shall ask if you can sit with Me in Silence for just a short space of your time as I find the words to speak with you. - Thank you!"

"Bless You, Dear Heart, I wish to continue, but before I do, I wish to say that the tears that presently are rolling down your cheeks are indeed My Tears of Freedom, a release that I have been waiting for ever since mankind has placed My Essence in Exile through their misqualified and fabricated stories down through the ages. The story of Adam and Lilith are True in many ways, and My part as Eve also has a very significant part within that Holy Trinity, for as you are well aware, the Planet Earth is a place within God's Creation that was given a very unique Divine Plan to allow a primitive race of human beings to transcend into their Ascended States through the use of free will.

"As you know, the history of the horrific choices that humanity has made along the way and how these decisions have imprisoned not only humanity into Love's Exile but the many Elementals, the Angelic Hosts as well. But what has not been spoken of, and perhaps here for the first time, is on occasions, humanity, through their mis-creations, have drawn into and enmeshed other Beings of Light by attaching to them such false archetypal creations as Lilith explained to you details some time ago. In this case, Eve, who I gave a part of Myself for the purpose of Serving Humanity, in that role within the original interaction with the first Adam Kadmon Seed of immaculate conception. At that time, there was no negativity, no impurity, no separation, everything was connected to and a part of Adam's inquisitive God Mind within the Divine Source of All Creation. Beloved Lilith being the Twin Flame of Adam, and I, the first Individualized Expression of Adam's free will to express God through him.

"The Truth of the Relationships has never been told upon the Planet, certainly not within the public arena, and so the stories of Our Relationships have been fabricated to such a degree that the Truth has been denied virtually to extinction. That is until now! That was until you, Beloved, accepted the challenge to reunite Adam, Lilith and Myself through the use of your own free will back into complete Unity by releasing and dissolving all conscious chains and bondages that have entrapped and enmeshed, indeed incarcerated Us with such archetypal tethers.

"Beloved Lilith explained this all from the archetypal points of view in Her Address to you, and so I do not need to repeat this; however, those archetypal energies have, in the same way for all of humanity, created veils around Us who have given so much while enveloped within this Earth Realm.

"The same could be said for all the Ascended Ones who, through human boxing and placing into certain personified pigeon holes, They too are in Their Own ways having to work with certain imbued projections given to them by human consciousness. They are not necessarily adversely affected in the same way as I and some others are/were! Have you ever wondered why there are only a relatively small number of 'named' Masters, Archangels and others? Masters who have now been given so many image portrayals and personalized representations? God says, 'Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image or any likeness of anything that is in heaven above.' Meaning that first, when one does this, they instantly alter, change or misalign the meaning or definition of Its Original Source Design and/or its Resonant Vibrational Frequency of that Conscious Reality. And second by, creating such images no matter what form they take then allows one to give their own Internal power and energy to, which is not, nor has ever been, the Desire for humanity to do!

There is far more for humanity to learn about their false Gods and their projections upon things they really know little about and, in so doing, diminish their own Divine Essence. But, Dear One, in this New Golden Age, so much will come to Light, so very much!

"Peter, you are very perceptive in your opening comments with your group after gleaning that which is energetically infused in Light Language around and within these, My words.

"I have decreed this for centuries of time. I have hidden myself from the Universal Father and Mother. I have held myself in darkness, willing to give my life and to start life all over as the Evening Rose to get the lights turned back on inside the Himalayas. They would not receive my request and promised me the day would come that, that moment would occur.

"For these words are indeed layered and encoded with Light. Waiting for the One/s who would be able to decipher the Truth and then act upon the hidden messages within the darkness, for even this is far deeper than any could have ever seen prior to this awakening.

"Beloved, Your Awakening has now released Me, it has dissolved the last remaining bondages that I have had to deal with as the Eve personality of My Divine Expression as part of My Divine Plan. I Am Whole once again to Extend the All That I Am for the Greatest Good of All Concerned. Until now, I was not Whole in the true sense of the word. We Are, as You All Are, Multi-Dimensional and Multi-faceted, so although it may seem such a small thing to many, this is indeed a Mammoth Triumph and this seemingly small communication, in the eyes of humanity, is like flipping the switch to Light Up an Entire Continent which will Shine away the darkness of tens of millions of Beloved Souls. That calls for a Divine Celebration, Indeed! I Know that you cannot grasp or even imagine such an important awakening from where you sit behind your computer, Beloved, but one day You and Your Beloved Colleagues will. And I, Dear Ones, will be there to Embrace Each of You with ALL the LOVE THAT I Am!

"Tonight, as you sleep, give your instructions to Your 'I AM' Presence to bring you to the Himalayas, Come, Come, Come, Beloved Hearts to the Temple of The Blue Lotus in the Heart of Our Mountains. WE Shall Be Waiting For Your Arrivals with Arms Stretched and Hearts so widely open to each of you.

"Beloved Adam and Lilith are Free, and Now I Am Free from this Exile from the embodiment of Eve, I Bless You, I Bless You, I So, Love You! So Much Joy fills My Heart, and the Tears of Release begin again with My Own Realization for My New-Found Freedom through 6 Beloved Human Hearts.

"Beloved Friends of the Sun of Even Pressure, to Seal My Freedom, I ask that each of you call Me into Your Heart and allow Me to Shine My New Light, allow Me to Burn Brightly My White Fire Flame of the White Rose That I Am. Do this, and I will fill your Lives with the Great Central Sun's Radiant Magnetic Light Presence that will Enflame your Life to over flowing with God's Divine Laws of Love and Light.

"You have given a Great Gift this day!

"I Am Grateful!

"I Am Grateful!

"I Am Grateful!

"If humanity could only truly understand the Power that they wield so unconsciously and made it conscious for the Greater Good of All Concerned, what a different Earth it would be. It will happen, there is so much promise for this coming forward on a daily basis now, I give God Thanks for the Spear Heads of this Divine Calling to Grace!"

"Glory Be To God"

"I Am Goddess Himalaya in your Beloved Hearts, Dear Ones, call on Me anytime, and I will come, as sure as Your Name is - 'I AM'!"

PETER: Thank you Dearly, Evening Rose. I give Heart thanks for Your 'Presence' and Your Heart delivery of this communication. In Truth, I do not know what just happened, but if I have helped in some way, that must be a Blessing! I Trust it is So! God Bless You for speaking with me. - Peter

A little time has passed again, and today is the 14th November, and I am now feeling that I am ready to enter the Alliance Council to complete this task of the 1st Phase of this Elemental Grace Alliance Project.

So, like the previous Series of Discourses, I wanted to create a suitable theme so that Everyone can creatively implement into Their Addresses and Messages the importance of this focus. Beloved Alpha was again correct when He said,

ALPHA: "So, We Grant Peter the time needed to replenish his Energetic System, to prepare the passage of time and focus, and simply ask that he returns to Us when He feels ready to proceed upon the final leg of this phase of the Elemental Grace Alliance."

PETER: I was reminded that I do not wish to just think of something that I might have once chosen, but actually to be Guided into what God Desire's to be made manifest here. I spent a little time on this inspiration a couple of weeks ago, and this is how it all unfolded.

No sooner had I thought of this potential, I was led to several things, but the one that really stood out for me was a name. This name or word was the name of a book printing company in Denmark. I was looking for a company that might print these transcriptions, and without any luck in the UK, I picked up a book in my collection that actually fitted the description of exactly how I envisaged this Elemental Grace Alliance book would look like. The printers of the book are called 'Narayana Press'.

I went to the website and looked around and found that they were not only book printers but farmers and horticulturalists, and this really caught my eye; beekeepers. And as the Essence of Bees has been the link to the last two series, I knew that this company somehow held the answer I was looking for. I contacted them, and we exchanged many emails to the effect of being ready to engage this company for future use. Then out of the blue, I thought, or the thought was impressed upon my mind, what does ‘Narayana’ mean? I had never heard it before, so I did some searches, and this is what I found.

“Narayana is the name of God in His Infinite All Pervading Form. Narayana is one of the names of Vishnu (and sometimes Krishna). He is the Supreme Purusha of Purusha Sukta. The Puranas present a seemingly divergent but accurate description of Narayana (as an Enlightened Supreme Being). The fifth verse of the Narayana Sukta, a hymn in Yajurveda, states that Narayana pervades whatever is seen or heard in this Universe from inside and outside alike. Another important translation of Narayana is ‘The One who rests on Water.’ The waters are called narah, [for] the waters are, indeed, produced by Nara-Narayana (the first Being), as they were His first residence [ayana], He is called Narayana.^[4] In Sanskrit, ‘Nara’ can also refer to all human beings or living entities (Jivas). Therefore, another meaning of Narayana is Resting place for all living entities, such as all beings of flesh and bones. (physical embodiment) The close association of Narayana with water explains the frequent depiction of Narayana in Hindu art as standing or sitting on an ocean.

“Narayana's Eternal and Supreme abode beyond the material Universe is Vaikuntha which is a Realm of Bliss and Happiness. It is also known as Paramapadha, which means Final or Highest place for Liberated Souls, where They enjoy Bliss and Happiness for Eternity in the Company of Supreme Lord.”

PETER: There is much information on the net about this name, with some diversity, but I wanted to reduce it down to a single focus of meaning that would best represent the summing up of the Discourses. So, I called in My Higher Self to help me, and this is what was received:

“MORTAL MAN OR WOMAN WHO MUST ONE DAY EVOLVE HIS OR HER OWN SELF INTO THE HIGHER REALMS OF THE UNIVERSAL LOVE, LIGHT AND LIFE OF GOD.”

So, this is my definition of Narayana.

I was also feeling that we began these Discourses with Grace, and Grace has been the theme of Everything here, the Gifting of Benevolence, through this journey, so in this feeling, I was sensing that to close with another Graceful and Grateful Acknowledgement of God’s Love. Divine Grace will provide that Energy to magnify the closing Addresses within this first stage of the Elemental Grace Alliance.

I, therefore, have chosen to name the next set of Discourses,

“Narayana And Divine Grace”.
